

OPENING THE DOORS FOUNDATION

SOCIAL AND EMOTIONAL WELL BEING PROGRAM

(SEWB)

2023

Opening The Doors Foundation launched The Social and Emotional Wellbeing Program in response to the immense social and emotional stress on Aboriginal students and their families caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. Through financial grants, the program aims to make school travel accessible to students which will have a positive impact on the wellbeing of Aboriginal students in Victoria. The Social and Emotional Wellbeing program is funded by the Merrin Foundation.

What can be funded by Social and Emotional Wellbeing Program?

The program can fund the following.

1. Cultural immersion experiences into remote and rural Australia
2. Regional Victoria camps
3. Music camps
4. Camps that offer sustainable living that is directly transferable to their urban lives
5. Overseas Immersion Experience
